I have plenty of toys but my favourite toy is a robot, named Cozmo. It was given to me by my father for my outstanding performance on Sports Day. I love it the most because it reminds me of how proud I made my parents that day. Cozmo is blue, white and black in colour. It also has a flashlight and runs on batteries. I control it with a remote and can make it walk, talk, sit and dance. It is also very good at kicking and fighting. I always tell my younger brother to be very careful when he plays with it. I know that when we grow up we get bored of toys but I am sure that I won't forget Cozmo.
