

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

First Term Examination - 2018

Class : 11 A1

SUB : Moral Science

F.M.: 80

DURATION:3 Hrs15Mins

DATE:28.07.2018

Answer the following questions: - (any eight)

10x8=80

1. 'However dark the night , the dawn will break'- Justify
  2. Write about any five values of life that leads to success.
  3. Write about a person whom you admire or is your role model?
  4. Point out any two social issues that need immediate attention.
  5. How as a student you can ensure safety of women in the society
  6. 'Discipline is the bridge between goals and accomplishment'- Provide a suitable explanation.
  7. 'It's not about how much you do but how much love you put into what you do that counts' – Elaborate.
  8. Differentiate between 'equity' and 'equality' with a suitable example.
  9. Write a few ways to recognize and appreciate your elders.
  10. 'Unity is strength' – Provide a suitable explanation with two examples.
-
-

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION
FIRST TERM EXAMINATION

Sub: MORAL SCIENCE

Class: XI

F.M :80

Duration: 3 hours 15 Minutes

Date: 27.07.2018

ANSWER KEY

Answer the following questions:- (any eight)

10x8=80

1. ' However dark the night , the dawn will break'

- There is happiness after every difficult situation
- Just like the darkest night ( the worst of )problems, the sun will shine again(things will be alright)
- It feels like the problems could never be solved or it will never come to an end
- We should hold tightly to a hope
- Difficult situations are temporary
- Tough times end with something better
- Two or three examples to support the statement.

2. Five values of life that leads to success-(any five with suitable examples)

- Dedication-devotion-determination
- Discipline
- Commitment
- Cooperation-Unity
- Belief in others
- Courtesy
- Appreciation
- Care-Love-Sacrifice
- Compassion
- Effort-Patience
- Forgiveness
- Honesty- Truthfulness
- Hope
- Gratitude

3. A person whom you admire or is your role model:-

The answer is reflective and will vary with students' choices. Role models are generally people whose behaviour or success can be emulated by others or by younger people.

Example: - Father/Mother, Any famous personality ,etc .

Students should mention in details about the values/ characteristics of the person they admire.

4. Social issues that need immediate attention :- (any two with explanation and example)

- Drug abuse
- Female infanticide
- Gender inequality
- Unemployment
- Domestic violence
- Dowry
- Child labour
- Caste discrimination
- Sexual abuse

5. Ensuring safety of women in the society

- Spreading awareness about women's safety
- Being careful while communicating with someone and by not using any abusive language
- Awareness about self –defense
- Keeping emergency numbers
- Informing friends and family members about the laws and acts for women
- Being protective towards friends and family

6. 'Discipline is the bridge between goals and accomplishment'

- Defining goals to be reached
- Discipline is a path- keeps us productive day-in and day-out
- Being consistent and having patience
- Eliminating distractions
- Breaking up bigger goals into many smaller goals
- Focus
- Streamlining tasks that are required to fulfil the goals only
- Small daily tasks will get us one step closer to reaching the goals – accomplishment

7. 'It's not about how much you do but how much love you put into what you do that counts'

- Loving a particular work- enjoying the work- sense of accomplishment
- Realizing that not all part of a work is very pleasant
- Passion is not always a realistic career
- All works have positive and negative aspects- everything is not perfect
- More love-harder you work
- More time is spent- lading to success

8. 'Equity' and 'Equality' (with a suitable example.)

- Equity- giving everyone what they need(impartiality)
- Equality- treating everyone the same(evenly)
- Equity is the process and equality is the outcome
- Equity- principle of fairness; Equality- aims to promote fairness
- Equality is fair only if everyone starts from the same place
- Health,education, Sports , employment
- In equity allpeople can have what they need; Equality- people get the same thing
- Examples to explain

9. Ways to recognize and appreciate your elders:

- Seeking advice
- Spending time
- Discussion about different topics
- Respecting their opinions
- To tell them how much we love and appreciate them
- Caring
- Calling them frequently
- Kindness or gestures

10. 'Unity is strength'

- United we stand, divided we fall
- Man is free but has to depend on others
- Happiness, sharing caring – result of unity
- Helping others, Dependence
- No unity- no freedom, no happiness, no joy, no sharing of thoughts
- Unity leads to friendship
- Give a suitable example to support the answer

-----