Group – B

4. Write very short answers for the following questions:

- i) Reflection of Noor Hussain characters – he loves her daughter very much, strength of unity, endurance of pain, ability to sacrifice his own life for the sake of his family.

- ii) Baron Hausberg gave him a wedding present - a cheque of ten thousand pounds to show his appreciation towards Hughie's charitable nature.
- iii) Mr. Suryakant compared the variety in food to our country due its diversification. Yes, I strongly agree with him because our country is composed of people having diverse clothes, customs and traditions, and religions.
- iv) Peter thought Rover had killed his dog which made him shout angrily at Vanessa in front of his mother. This made her feel choked.
- v) To play dice. He used to spend almost all the time playing the game.
- vi) Rukhsana was awarded with National Bravery Award, the Rani Jhansi Bravery Award and the Sarvottam Jeevan Raksha Padak. She and her brother were awarded the Kirti Chakra, the second highest peacetime gallantry award.
- vii) On Children's day, the students organized book fair to help orphanage kids.

Group – C

5. Write answers for the following questions in detail.

- i) The qualities that Hughie displayed in this story are as follows:
  - a. A very handsome and charming young man,
  - b. Cheerfulness and good nature,
  - c. Kind and generous,
  - d. Poor and has no job,
  - e. Loves Laura Merton
- ii) Vanessa went to her aunt's house to spend summer vacations. She was accompanied by her pet dog, Rover. Peter, the cousin of Vanessa also had a small dog named Molly. Both Molly and Rover used play with each other. But one day Molly was dead and Peter thought that she was killed due to Rover's fault. Thus, Peter was unknowingly rude to Vanessa.
- iii) When Rukhsana's family was pounded by the militant, she could not resist herself from hiding. She came out from under the cot with an axe and struck one of the militant's head. He was severely wounded and his riffle was taken by her. Meanwhile, the other family members joined her. She and her brother kept on firing at the other two militants till they fled away.

- iv) The Children wanted to raise some fund for the orphanage children by organizing food fair on Children's Day. While planning for the same, they thought to help their parents in cooking. In that way, they can bring food specific to their state and at the same time they can learn their traditional recipes. Therefore, the children's idea was a 'win-win situation' for everyone.
- v) The children raised funds by organizing food fair on Children's Day. Write the supporting sentences.
- vi) Yes, I agree that Rukhsana did not fear the militants. The following instances that would solidify my opinion are as follows:
- (a) She struck one of the militants with an axe, severely wounding him.
  - (b) She quickly picked up the AK-47 rifle from him.
  - (c) Also snatched another rifle from other militant.
  - (d) She and her brother shoot randomly at the 2 militants till the fled away.
- vii) We learned that how small demands can add up to huge figure. We should be careful from flattering and greedy people.
- viii) Hughie finds that Alan is painting a portrait of an old man who appears to be a beggar. The old man was heavily wrinkled and he looks extremely sad. He was bent with age, looked weak and ill. He has a rough walking stick in one hand. While in the other hand, he is holding out an old hat as if to ask for money. He gave away almost all he had with him that day.
