GROUP B

4. Answer the following questions:

- (i) What did Mr. Kumar do to help Ranji get back his confidence?

Points: Mr. Kumar gave Ranji a normal bat saying that it's a lucky bat with which he scored a century. Page: 09

- (ii) What will you do for the following situation?

"You have accidentally broken your mother's favourite flower vase"

Points: You are supposed to inform your mother regarding the truth and to be honest.

- (iii) How old would the lady be? Give reasons for your answer.

Points: Above 60+... As the woman's feet were aged and slow. She was unable to cross the road alone. She was very old and gray. Page: 03-04.

- (iv) Who was the noble lady?

Points: That was king Ashokavardhana's chief queen. Page: 18

- (v) What do you feel about the way Jumman treated khalajan?

Points: Jumman was very much ungrateful and selfish. His behavior totally changed when the khalajan's property got transferred in his name. Page: 21

GROUP C

5. Answer the following questions:

- (i) Since their father was unwell, Laxman and Parvati decided to make and sell earthen pots.

What does this show about them? Describe.

Points: Responsible towards their family...Hardworking...Honest... Sympathetic.. Cooperative

(ii) Parvati believed in doing her work well. What is there in the story which suggest that?

Points: She put an effort to make something special and different... She prepared the colour white and black... She tried to implement the concept of sky, breeze, and clouds in her drawings... This made it very special. Page: 17-18

(iii) What was Alagu Chowdhary's verdict? Do you think it was correct?

Points: After examining the matter carefully Alagu Chowdhary informed Jumman to give khalajan a monthly allowance for her maintenance. Alagu Chowdhury did proper justice to khalajan. Page: 23-24
