Group-C

5. Answer the following. (any 6)

i) What example does Dravid give to show that the differences of language are overruled by desire to contribute to the team's effort?

Ans .Dravid shared a story . In his under-19 days when the Indian team played a match against Newzealand junior team, india had two bowlers, one north Indian and another south Indian. North Indian bowler spoke only hindi and south Indian bowler who came from Kerala only spoke state's regional language, Malayalam. Now even that should have been okay as they were both bowlers and could bowl simultaneous spells. Yet in one , they happened to come together at the crease. Everyone in the team was worried that how they were going to manage without a common medium of communication. But surprising everyone these two guys came up with 100 run partnership .Their common language was cricket and that worked out fine. This example given by Dravid shows how differences of language are overruled by the desire to contribute to the team's effort.
