

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

Annual Examination (Model Answer)

Sub: MORAL SCIENCE Class: 5A/5B/5C F. M. 90

Duration: 2 HOURS 30 MINUTES Date: 23.11.2019

Group – A

1. Choose the correct answer : 1X5=5
- Yudhisthir got the title of 'Dharmaputra' because he (i) fulfilled his duty towards the faithful dog.
  - (ii) Girisha Hosanagara Nagarajegowda made India proud in the 2012 Paralympics games.
  - 'Alms' means (iii) donations given to help the poor.
  - Amina broke down and wept because (ii) realised how much Hamid loved her.
  - Your grandfather has poor eyesight. You will (ii) read out the newspaper headlines to him.
2. Fill in the blanks : 1x5=5
- The national anthem is being played at the school assembly, you will sing along standing at attention position.
  - Malinichib campaigned for the participation of people on wheel chair in the Mumbai Marathon.
  - Lord Buddha considered the half eaten pomegranate gift the most valuable.
  - Hamid bought tong for his grandmother because she burnt her fingers while making chapattis.
3. Write Y for those you will do. Write N for those you will not do. 1x5=5
- Cheat to get good marks. N
  - Speak a lie to escape punishment. N
  - Apologize for your mistake. Y
  - Help an accident victim. Y
  - Join a classmate in breaking rules. N

Group – B

4. Answer the following : 3x5=15
- Why did Hamid not buy toys and sweets?
 Ans. Hamid was a very matured boy according to his age. He had only three paisa with him. Though the toys and sweets tempted him but he knew that the clay toys can brake easily and sweets will give him short time pleasure.

(b) What makes Diwakar Sharma special?

Ans. Diwakar Sharma is a visually challenged boy (one who can not see). The loves singing but in a music competition he never wanted special treatment. This makes him special.

(c) Why was Lord Dharma happy with Yudhisthir?

Ans. Lord Dharma was accompanying Yudhisthir in the disguise of dog. When Yudhisthir refused Lord Indra's offer to go to heaven without his dog, Lord Dharma was very happy to see his loyalty towards the dog. He was also happy for his dutifulness.

(d) What lesson did the old woman's gesture teach the people gathered to give lord Buddha alms?

Ans. King Bimbisara, Prince Ajatshatru and other people were surprise to see the warm response of Lord Buddha to the old woman's gift of half eaten pomegranate. Lord Buddha explained to them any offering gift becomes more valuable not because of its material value or price, but the amount of love, faith attached with it.

(e) What values did you learn from the chapter "To granny, with love"?

Ans. Hamid a little boy with his gesture taught us that instead of thinking about oneself, we should think about others. Helping others is more important in life.

Group – C

5. Answer the following questions: (any 6)

10x6=60

(a) We often use the expression 'as selfless as a tree'. Why are trees called selfless?

Ans. Trees gives us flowers, fruits, shelter, wood everything for human benefit; because they give up their oneself to serve humanity.

(b) God has given us so many things. Make a list of everything that he has given us. Amongst all these gifts, which ones do you cherish the most and why?

Ans. God has given us so many things, but most important thing is our own family. Out of which I feel the most cherished thing is our family, parents because parents take of me and love me. They look after my needs, give me protection.

(c) Described the incident for which Anjali got National Bravery Award for 2011.

Ans. In this story when Anjali heard the gunshot and noise of the door next to their room, immediately she decided to run away from that place, with her brother. When both of them were running his brother Abhijit was injured with a gunshot wound. Anjali without healing afraid took him on her back and run fast safely.

(d) Why did Sai Prasad Vishwanathan refuse to get admitted to a renowned engineering college? Why are the people mentioned in the lesson special?

Ans. Sai Prasad can not walk. He uses a wheel chair to move around. As a student, he refused to get admitted to a renowned engineering college. This is because the college offered him a sit based on his physical condition and not on his merit.

Sai was by profession as an engineer. He refused any type of advantage because his personality was very much strong.

(e) How did Gavaskar save the life of the people in the car?

Ans. On 13th January 1993 in Mumbai in front of Gavaskar's house incident of riot and looting was going on. Number of people together were throwing stone at cars, that were passing by. Gavaskar came out and stood in front of the stone pelting mob, he said that they have to hit him first before they hit all the passengers. Suddenly the stone pelting mob became quite and drop the stones. The wild mood vanished shame and regret replaced hatred and anger. With their heads down, the rioters moved away. That day, Gavaskar's fame reached new heights. He proved himself to be a great human being, and not just great cricketer.

(f) Make a duty list for yourself. List the duties you have towards –

- Ans. (i) your family – I must be loving towards my parents, elders and youngsters. I must be caring with them. I must be helpful.
- (ii) your school – I love my school, teachers, classmates. I must do my home work regularly. I must disciplined in class. I must obey school rules.
- (iii) your friends – I love my friends, I must care for them, I must help them. I must be loyal to them.
- (iv) your country – I must be good citizen. I must love my countrymen.
- (v) the environment – I must not scattered garbage. I must plant trees. I must protect nature.

(g) How will you make the best use of

- Ans. (i) your old textbooks and storybooks? - I can donate it to the poor and needy students. Storybooks I can donate it to the public library or the school library.
- (ii) Clothes that you have outgrown? – Donate them to the needy, homeless during the time of flood or any natural calamity.

- (iii) toys that you no longer play with? – I can give it to the needy, orphanage.
- (iv) your summer holidays? – I can do social service, helping at home, giving company to my grand-parent, taking care of younger brother and sister, visiting old-age home, travelling for personal pleasure.
- (h) Write down how can you help your Parents, Grandparents ,Teachers and your friends everyday.

Ans. For this reflective questions logical answers will be equally acceptable.

*****