

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A Jesuit Christian Minority Institution

First Term Examination – 2019

CLASS – 6(Model question and answer)

Subject: Value Education
Time Allotted: 2 hrs 30 min

F.M: 90
Date: 17-04-2019

GROUP: A

1. Tick the correct answers:1×5 =5

a) Anil become a regular visitor at Miss Mackenzie's house because she - Ans: iii) was interested in flowers and wanted to learn more about them from Miss Mackenzie.

b) Miss Mackenzie gave the book to Anil because she – Ans: i) felt that Anil would cherish it, read it and take care of it.

c) Gary Finkle lives in – Ans: i) New York.

d) A tree plantation drive has been organized in your school. You will – Ans:iv) participate and encourage others to join.

e) Gary's wife's name is – Ans: ii) Micki.

2. a)Reuse, Reduce, Recycle, and Refuse are the 4 Rs of keeping our environment clean. Fill in these words in the blanks.4×1=4

i) Recycle old newspapers and magazine.

ii) Reduce the consumption of water.

iii) Refuse disposable plates and cups.

iv) Reuse paper.

b) i) How high is the mountain?1

Ans: The Mountain is 12,000 feet high.

ii) Name the flowers which grow on High Mountain?1

Ans: The flowers that grow on the high mountains are blue gentian and purple columbine.

iii) Name the book that Miss Mackenzie showed to Anil. 1

Ans: Flora Himalinesis is the book that Miss Mackenzie showed to Anil.

iv) Where dose Gary live? 1

Ans: Gary lives on a hill top near the village of Andes, near New York.

v) Do you use plastic bags? 1

Ans: No, I do not use plastic bags as it pollutes the environment.

vi) Do you throw empty wrappers on your school campus? 1

Ans: No, I do not throw empty wrappers on my school campus.

GROUP : B

3. a) How do we harm the environment?3x5=15

Ans: We harm the environment in the following ways –

i) By cutting trees.

ii) Factories throw out harmful gases.

iii) Insecticides and pesticides are spread on our food.

iv) Ships throw oil spills on the oceans.

b) Name the old houses that still stand on the out skirts of the hill stations.

Ans: The old houses that still stand on the out skirts of Indian hill stations are –The oaks, Hunter’s Lodge, The Parsonage, The Pines, Dumbarnie, Mackinnon’s Hall and Windmere.

c)Name the neat white washed cottage. Who is living there now?

Ans: The neat white washed cottage’s name is Mulberry lodge. Miss Mackenzie is living there now.

d)How is Gary different from us?

Ans: Gary is different from us because he is quadriplegic man and he has lost almost all sensation and movement below his shoulders due to severe injuries to the spinal card.

e)Who else are there in Gary’s house?

Ans: In Gary’s house there lived his wife Micki and a female capuchin monkey named Jo.

GROUP : C

4. (a) What change has Jo brought in Gary’s life?

Ans. Jo is a species of capuchin monkey. It is highly intelligent. The monkey helps Jo throughout the day. If the mouthstick drops from Gary’s mouth he picks it up and puts it back to Gary’s mouth. She opens the door, brings a TV remote, she also brings snacks from the refrigerator, she feeds him, wipes his mouth. She even turns the lights off when Gary goes to sleep.

(b) What is nasturtium bed? Describe the change in the mountains by the middle of October.

Ans. Nasturtium plants are ground covering plants with bright coloured flowers with it’s green leaves and bright flowers it forms a flowerbed.

By mid October snow fell on the distant mountains. The high painted snow covered peaks stood high against the blue sky. With the setting sun's light on the peak colour changed from orange to pink to red.

(c) What happened to Miss Mackenzie when it started raining?

Ans. With rain and sleet (a) flowers in the garden were killed. (b) the pet cat stayed indoor, curled up at foot of the bed. (c) Miss Mackenzie covered herself with mufflers and shawls to protect herself from cold. (d) with a dream that Anil will come back in spring when primroses will come out. She bound herself in bed the warmest place. She kept a hot water bottle in her bed.

(d) All of us have a responsibility towards protecting our environment. Write what you, as a student, can do to protect the environment.

Ans. To protect the environment a student can perform the following :

- a) Take care of all natural things like plants, animals etc.
- b) Use paper more carefully as it is manufactured from wood.
- c) Plant more trees.
- d) Preserve water.
- e) Keep our neighbourhood clean.

(e) Your neighbour is an elderly woman. She lives alone and longs for company. What can you do to bring a smile to her face?

Ans. To bring smile to an elderly woman who stays as our neighbour one should do the following things :

- a) We can spend some time with her.
- b) We can help her in her daily work.
- c) We can also buy something for her.
- d) We can keep in touch with her on regular basis, so that, if she becomes sick doctor's can be called.

(f) A stray dog follows you from the bus stop every day. What will you do at that time?

Ans. If a stray dog follow me everyday from the bus stop then as a student I can keep some food for it, also can pat him on head and love him.

(g) Humans and dogs share a special relationship. Analyse and write how such dogs change the lives of their masters.

Ans. Dogs become part and parcel of specially abled people. For wheel chair bound people or blind or deaf people they are of great help.

i) They help to open the doors.

ii) Bring newspaper.

iii) Pull wheel chair.

iv) Operate light switches.

v) Guide them in supermarket.

vi) Guide them through traffic.

vii) They also respond to doorbell or phone ring. They bridge the gap between these people and the society. Most importantly they give the company to their masters so that they never feel lonely.

(h) You have been requesting your parents to bring home a pet. Finally, they have agreed on the condition that you will look after it. Write five points on what you will do for your pet.

Ans. As a student if a pet has come to my house the following duties we should perform for it : i) I will play with it, ii) I will serve it's food, iii) I will brush it's coat of fur with a comb, iv) I will take it for a walk, v) I also see it's place of living is cleaned everyday.