GROUP-C (any 6)

[10 X 6 = 60]

Q1. ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS-

a. "What a wonderful surprise" said Jochen's mother. What was the surprise? Why was it wonderful to both of them?

Ans: Jochen went into the kitchen and made spaghetti for dinner. He laid the dining table neatly with their best china and polished the silver cutlery, which was very occasionally used. This special arrangement of dinner made by Jochen alone at home for her tired mother was really a surprise to her.

For Jochen, it was a special event as he could relieve her mother who was toiling hard for earning their livelihood, gave Jochen a sense of satisfaction and fulfilment. For his mother, it was a sense of mental support that she could get realizing that her son has already matured to understand her struggle and is ready to support her in need. This sense of sudden realization about each other's role and need of mutual support by each other was very fulfilling and so wonderful to both of them.

b. God could not be everywhere, so He created mothers. --- Discuss.

Ans: The above line signifies a mother's greatness and compared to God. According to the saying, God considered mother to be as loving, responsible, and caring as him; so he entrusted her to look after all the people of the world. Hence, there is one mother in each family who makes it heaven with her love, work and care.

c. The best way to gain self-confidence is to do what you are afraid to do. --- Discuss.

Ans: We should devote our resources to the task at hand. Rather than waste time and energy worrying that we aren't good enough, we can devote our energy to our efforts. So ultimately, we'll perform better and feel confident.

d. i. Why did Ramzan's father want to sell Bulbul? ii. What did Ramzan's father think when he saw Bulbul without his son? iii. Ramzan and Bulbul shared a special relationship. Do you agree? Give reasons for your answer.

Ans: i. Ramzan's father was very angry upon his horse, Bulbul, because it had thrown him thrice from its back. ii. Ramzan's father was not happy with Bulbul as it had thrown him from its back in the morning of the fateful day. So he considered Bulbul has done the same with his son and thus lost all his patience and power of logical thinking and considered Bulbul as responsible for mishap of his beloved son Ramzan. iii. Yes, Ramzan and Bulbul shared a special relationship. [State reasons]

e. A dog is a man's best friend. But sometimes dogs get angry and can bite. Write the tips which can be helpful to avoid getting bitten by an angry dog.

Ans: 1. Don't disturb or frighten them, particularly when they are eating or tied up.

2. Don't tease them for fun.

3. Offer some food but they should not be forced to eat.

f. You can judge a man's true character by the way he treats his fellow animals. Discuss.

Ans: We may judge of a man's character by the persons whose affection he seeks. If we find a man seeking only the affection of those who are great, depend upon it he is ambitious and self-seeking; but when we observe that a man seeks the affection of those who can do nothing for him, but for whom he must do everything, we know that he is not seeking himself, but that pure benevolence sways his heart.

g. Loyalty is a noble virtue. How can we be loyal to our family, friends and country? Discuss.

Ans: We can be loyal to friends, family, and significant others by being honest, trustworthy, supportive, and generous. (Elaborate the above sentence)

h. Creativity leads to thinking; thinking provides knowledge makes you great. Discuss.

Ans: Learning makes us to be creative--when we are creative, we will be thinking -- when we think, we get knowledge-- and knowledge will make you smarter than others.
