

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

FIRST TERM WORKSHEET NO. - 27

Class: 11

Sub: SOCIOLOGY

Date- 27/07/2020

TOPIC: SOCIAL GROUP

CHAPTER: 2

I. CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION

(1x15=15)

1. _____ is a collection of individuals who interact on a regular basis, sharing same cultural norms and having we-feeling.
a. Formal organization b. Informal organization c. Social organization d. Social group
2. Who defined social group as any collection of human being who are brought into human relationship with one another?
a. MacIver and Page b. Max Weber c. Friedrich Hegel d. None
3. Social groups cannot form without
a. Animals b. Humans c. Both d. None
4. Consciousness of kind refers to
a. Mutual awareness among group members
b. Adhering to the group norms
c. Identifying oneself with the group
d. All
5. Size of social groups may be a. Big b. Small c. Both a & b d. Only b
6. Which one of the following is true about social group?
a. Groups are static b. Has enduring influence on personality c. Size of the group is small d. None
7. Formal organizations have
a. Specific function b. General interest c. No function d. All 8. Examples of informal group are
a. Peer group b. Friendship groups c. Linguistic group d. All 9. _____ may be temporary or permanent in nature.
a. Community b. Organization c. Association d. Group
10. Membership in _____ is voluntary.
a. Association b. Community c. Primary group d. All 11. _____ structures refers to the total process which is the conglomeration of many concrete structures, by which society maintains production, distribution of wealth, demand and supply and power systems.
a. Concrete b. Analytical c. Institutions d. Social structure 12. Society as process refers to
a. The constant change within the society b. Society is evolving c. Society is dynamic d. All 13. Society is dynamic means
a. Society is stagnant b. Society constantly keeps changing c. Society is vulnerable to changes d. None 14. The means of social control within a society is through
a. Norms b. Laws c. Cultures d. All 15. Society is an ever constant process that continues even after the death of individuals.
a. True b. Maybe c. Never d. False

