I went to my friend`s birthday party on the 10th of January.

He invited his friends and relatives to his house. The entire house was decorated with streamers, balloons and decoration hanging from the ceiling. Ravi, got a vanilla with chocolate inside the cake made by his parents. All his friends and relatives brought gifts for him. After cutting the cake we played many games like musical chairs and four corners. Everyone was served snacks, cake pieces, sweets, and tea. After we got done eating, there was a magic show organised for the children. It was time to go home and while leaving we were given return gifts by Ravi. I enjoyed his birthday party very much.
