

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

ANSWER SHEET - 9

Class: 9

Sub: GEOGRAPHY

Date- 15/04/2020

TOPIC: CONCEPT, CAUSES AND EFFECTS OF TSUNAMI

CHAPTER: 6

I. CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION.

(1X15=15)

1. It is a series of sea waves triggered by tremendous seaquakes.
a. Tsunami
2. The word 'Tsunami' is derived from
d. Japanese word
3. The meaning of the term 'Tsunami' is
b. Harbour waves
4. Tsunami is a series of sea waves generated on the sea floor triggered by endogenetic forces like
d. All
5. The root cause for the origin of Tsunami is
c. Both a & b
6. Fall of oceanic plate or the breakage on the plate boundaries may create upliftment of ocean water.
a. True
7. Another cause for Tsunami is
d. All
8. The probable cause(s) for the rise of tsunami is/ are
d. All
9. _____ are affected the most due to tsunami.
c. The coastal regions
10. The tsunami on _____, 2011 on the north-eastern coast of Honshu island of Japan destroyed the large Fukushima Nuclear power plant.
d. March 11
11. Rivers in the coastal parts grow furious during tsunamis and they bring flood on their banks far inland.
a. True
12. The destructive earthquake of 1950 in Assam changed the course of
b. Brahmaputra river
13. Severe earthquakes can cause
d. All
14. The expansion and contraction of gases in the interior of the earth causes
d. Earthquake
15. When earthquakes are caused due to adjustments in inner rock beds, they are known as
b. Plutonic earthquake

SHABARI DAS