

St. Lawrence High School
A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION
27, BALLYGUNGE CIRCULAR ROAD, KOLKATA 700019

Answer: WORKSHEET – 5
2nd Term

CLASS – IV    SUBJECT – ENGLISH TEXT    LESSON – George and Ranji    DATE: 08.05.2020

---

1. Give the meanings of the following words:-

- a) Violent - One who troubles others
- b) Wandered off - Went off
- c) Ferns – Plants that have leaves but no flowers

2. Give the opposites:-

- a) Unusually x Usually
- b) Plenty x Little
- c) Surprised x Unsurprised
- d) Violent x Gentle

3. Reference to context:-

“There’s plenty of time”.

- i) Name the lesson.

Ans: The name of the lesson is “George and Ranji”.

- ii) Who said these words and to whom?

Ans: The narrator said these words to George.

- iii) Why did the speaker say that there’s plenty of time?

Ans: The speaker said that there’s plenty of time as the train that would take George back to the hospital would leave at eleven – fifteen.

4. Answer the following questions:-

- a) Who was George?

Ans: George was the narrator’s cousin.

- b) Where did George escape from?

Ans: George escaped from the mental hospital in a neighbouring town.

- c) When would George turn up at his cousin’s house?

Ans: George would turn up at his cousin’s house at the approach of the cricket season.

- d) Who did George think himself to be?

Ans: George thought himself to be the great Ranji, prince of cricketers and that he had just been selected to captain India.

- e) What did George have in his hands when he came to visit his cousin?
Ans: George had a cricket bat in one hand and a box in the other when he came to visit his cousin.
- f) What did George do when his cousin gave him a glass of water?
Ans: George emptied it over a pot of ferns.
- g) Why was George given a certain amount of freedom in the asylum?
Ans: George was not a violent type, so he was allowed to move freely in the asylum.
- h) Where did the narrator want to take George? Why?
Ans: The narrator wanted to take George to the railway station to send him back to the mental hospital.

5. Make sentences:- (Model sentences)

- a) Escaped – Last night a thief escaped from the jail.
- b) Surprised – I was surprised to get a gift from my father.
(Children will write sentences of their own)