

WORK SHEET 25

Sub: ENGLISH 'B'

Class: XII

F. M :15

Topic : Shall I Compare Thee To A Summer's Day?

Date:18.01.2021

Multiple Choice Questions :

1x15=15

1.Shakespeare begins his sonnet with a/an

- a. statement                      b. exclamation                      c. invocation                      d. interrogation

2. What do the rough winds of summer shake?

- a. the sunflowers                      b. the roses                      c. the cactus flowers                      d. the darling buds of May

3. Shakespeare will ultimately preserve the beauty of his friend through

- a. his novels                      b. his verses                      c. his dramas                      d. his letters

4.The word 'temperate' means

- a. serve                      b. moderate                      c. evanescent                      d. perishable

5. The word 'lease' means

- a. agreement                      b. span                      c. eternal                      d. conception

6. The word 'brag' in the poem means

- a. boast                      b. claim                      c. announce                      d. tell

7. "Sometimes too hot the eye of heaven shines". The reference here is to

- a.Mars                      b. the Sun                      c. the Moon                      d. Jupiter

8. What kind of complexion does the sun have ?

- a. pink                      b. yellow                      c. silver                      d. golden

9. The poet states that 'fair'

- a. is never subject to change                      b. is the opposite of unfair                      c. is subject to change
d. can diminish marginally

10. The word opposite in meaning to 'eternal' is

- a. decayed                      b. temporal                      c. universal                      d. momentary

11.In the first quatrain the poet establishes the young man's

- a. superiority                      b. love                      c. beauty                      d. creativity.

12. In the second quatrain the poet considers the changing face of a.winter                      b. autumn                      c. summer                      d. spring

13. "By chance, or nature's changing course _____"

a. dimmed                      b. fade                      c. declines                      d. untrimmed

14. How can eternal summer be maintained?

a. through poetry    b. through beauty    c. through preservation    d. through conservation

15. "Nor lose _____ of that fair thou ow'st". The missing word is

a. property                      b. possession                      c. power                      d. none of these

Kalyani Banerjee

---