A. Answer the following questions below:

Q1. Do you think the fox and the wolf should have eaten the cakes? If No, then why so?

The fox and the wolf should not have eaten the cakes.

The cakes did not belong to them. The woman had put effort to make it so it was wrong on the part of the fox and wolf to eat them up without taking permission.

Q2. How do we know that the fox was clever and the wolf was greedy?

The fox was clever because he used his brains and saved himself from getting eaten up. At the same time, he found a way to get the wolf into trouble. The wolf was greedy because he wanted to eat the fox first. When he was offered more food he forgot about the fox and went to eat the food in the house without telling the woman.
