Answer Worksheet Number-2

Adverbs

Sub: English Grammar

Class: 3

Date: 05.05.20

Adverbs are words that add meaning to verbs, adjectives or other adverbs in a sentence. We can also call them how, when and where words. They tell how an action is done, when it is done and where it is done.

Adverbs of manner tell us how actions are done. Adverbs of time tell us when actions are done. Adverbs of place tell us where the actions are done.

He played yesterday. Adverbs of time show when something happened.

1. Underline the adverb of time:-

- She arrived two days ago.
- I wrote to him last month.
- He will come tomorrow.
- I have to study right now.
- We have our singing competition today.

2. Choose a time adverb from the box to replace the underlined words in each sentence:-

later	soon	now	yesterday	today
-------	------	-----	-----------	-------

- Don't wait for a moment, do it right away.
Ans. Don't wait for a moment, do it now.
- We went swimming the day before today.
Ans. We went swimming yesterday.
- We are going for a movie this very day.
Ans. We are going for a movie today.
- Our class teacher should arrive in a short time.
Ans. Our class teacher should arrive soon.
- I will meet you in a short while.
Ans. I will meet you later.

3. Choose the correct adverb:-

- I am going to sleep early tonight.
i. early ii. tomorrow iii. yesterday
- Rohit had to eat his dinner late because he was studying.
i. then ii. late iii. now
- Kunal came to class late yesterday. He missed his train.
i. tomorrow ii. early iii. yesterday
- My friends are coming over for dinner tonight.
i. tonight ii. then iii. lately
- Lisa just finished studying. Now, she will go for lunch.
i. today ii. now iii. late

4. Write a sentence of your own that use these words as adverbs of time:-

- Today- I saw Seema today.
- Daily- The newspaper arrives daily.
- Sometimes- I get up very early sometimes.
- Before- I always get nervous just before a match.
- Late- We should never be late for school.
