Ashley Missed School

'Ashley! Get out of bed right now', shouted his mother angrily on a winter morning. It was already 7'o clock and he only had fifteen minutes left before the school bus would arrive. However, Ashley was reluctant to get up. He pretended to be fast asleep in his cozy little bed, so that he could escape going to school.

Ashley was a very lazy boy who would not do his homework, so he often got a scolding from his teachers. He did not want to get a shouting today for his incomplete science homework. Therefore, he decided not to go to school. However, his mother furiously dragged him out of his bed.

Ashley quickly held his stomach and started howling. His mother worriedly asked him what had happened. He pretended to have a stomach ache. So his mother put him back to bed and told him to take rest. Ashley was grinning with joy under his blanket as his plan was successful. Later, in the evening after having a good sleep, he enjoyed eating the delicious snacks his mother made for him.

The next day Ashley went to school and was surprised to know that they did not have their science class yesterday. In the science class the teacher had arranged for a wonderful magic show and Ashley only got to hear the fun and exciting story from his friend. It was then that Ashley decided that he would never miss school again.
