Answer the following questions:

Q1) What kind of a trouble was the tiger in?

A1) The tiger was in big trouble. He was caught in a trap. The trap was too strong for him. In spite of trying very hard he couldn't get through the bars and failed to come out of it.

Q2) How did the tiger manage to get out of the trap?

A2) In spite of his best effort, the tiger couldn't come out of the trap. But suddenly he saw an old man coming along. He requested the old man to get him free. But the old man knew that he might be eaten up by the tiger if he is set free. So first he refused to help. But the tiger pleaded that he would serve the man as a servant or become his friend. At last the tiger's repeated pleas made man have a change of heart and he opened the trap. This way the tiger managed to come out of the trap.

3) How did the tree respond when the old man asked for help?

A3) When the old man asked the tree for help, it laughed at him. It refused to give any help. It pointed out to the man how ungrateful people are. The tree gives so much to everyone but in return people cut its branches and eat up the leaves. In a way, they destroy the forest. Hence it refused to help the man.
