

FIRST TERM

CLASS: IV ANSWER: ENGLISH GRAMMAR WORKSHEET: 14 DATE: 8-6-2020

SUPER COMPREHENSION – MY TALL GREEN FRIENDS

A] Give the opposite of the following words.

1. Fortunate
Fortunate - Unfortunate
2. Encouraged
Encouraged - Discouraged
3. Disappearing
Disappearing - Appearing

B] Find a word from the passage for each of the following meanings.

1. To break into two or more parts.
Split
2. To cover or surround something.
Encased
3. Sit or lie in the sun.
Sunning

C] Match the columns.

1	Smooth	2	Adverb
2	Safely	4	Verb
3	Forest	5	Proper Noun
4	Sleeping	1	Adjective
5	Garhwal Himalayas	3	Common Noun

D] State true or false.

1. The author felt that he was fortunate to live in a cottage with big windows near the forest. True
2. The author leapt from the tree onto the tin roof disturbing the sleeping bats. False
3. By mid- summer the walnuts reached maturity. False

E] Make sentences with the following words.

1. Swift
Swift – You must be swift if you want to win the race.
2. Giggle
Giggle- The children pointed at the clown with a giggle.

F] Answer the following questions.

1. Name the tree that was for all seasons? How did the tree look in winter?
The walnut tree was a tree for all seasons.
In winter the branches of the tree were smooth, straight and round but were leafless or bare.
2. Why did the ancients prescribe walnuts for headaches?
The ancients prescribed walnuts for headaches because it is like the human brain.

3. What happens when the walnut reaches maturity?

When the walnut is fully grown or reaches maturity, the green jacket covering the walnut begins to break revealing the hard black shell of the walnut which has the nut.

4. Who was the culprit? Describe the culprit.

The culprit was an old lady who sometimes came to cut grass on the hillside.

The old lady's face was wrinkled but her legs and arms were sturdy. She could move quickly and easily in the tree.