

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

CLASS - XI

POLITICAL SCIENCE ANSWER KEY - 37

TOPICS: FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS AND DUTIES

DATE: 14.11.2020

A. Answer the following questions by choosing the correct option:

1x15=15

1. The notion of rights is a legal concept.
2. Human Rights cannot be termed as a command of any sovereign.
3. Rights are codified in the Constitution of India.
4. Rights are applicable within national boundaries.
5. Rights can be revised by the ordinary process of law.
6. Fundamental rights create and guarantee the conditions which are essential for the fullest development of the individual.
7. Fundamental rights enjoy special sanctity and status.
8. Our fundamental rights are categorized.
9. The 24th Amendment wiped the effect of the Golok Nath case.
10. Fundamental rights are amendable by Parliament under provisions of Article 368.
11. Article 32 talks about Right to Constitutional Remedies.
12. To bring a suit against government official under section 197 of Criminal Procedure Code a two month notice is required.
13. Article 17 is framed on Gandhian ideals.
14. Article 19 guarantees six essential freedoms.
15. Article 19(c) guarantees the right to form associations or unions.

Teacher's Name: Rituparna Banerjee