

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

WORKSHEET 28

SUB: ENGLISH 'B'
TOPIC : DAYBREAK

CLASS: XI

F.M : 15
DATE: 15.02.2021

Do As Directed :

1x15=15

1. The wind hailed the ship. (Change the voice)
2. Hail the coming morn. (Change the voice)
3. Proclaim the hour. (Change the voice)
4. The mariners were urged to sail on by the wind. (Change the voice)
5. It ____ to the field of corn. (Use the proper form of 'whisper')
6. Ye mariners, the night is _____. (Use the proper form of 'go')
7. The wind that came up out of the sea, asked the mists to make room. (Remove Relative Clause)
8. The wind hailed the ships. It urged the mariners to sail on. (Join by using Relative Clause)
9. It touched the wood-birds folded wing. (Rewrite by using Relative Clause)
10. The wind came up out of the sea. It asked the mists to make room. (Join by using Participle)
11. It touched the wood-bird's folded wing and asked it to sing. (Rewrite by using Participle)
12. The crowing of the cock signals the approach of the dawn. (Underline the Gerunds)
13. 'O mist, make room ____ me'. (Fill in the blank with appropriate Preposition)
14. 'It crossed ____ churchyard with ____ sigh,' (Fill in the blanks with appropriate Articles)
15. Your clarion blow; the day is nearby. (Correct the error)

Kalyani Banerjee