

WORKSHEET 28 SOLUTION

SUB: ENGLISH 'B'
TOPIC : DAYBREAK

CLASS: XI

F.M : 15
DATE: 15.02.2021

Do As Directed :

1x15=15

1. The wind hailed the ship. (Change the voice)

Ans: The ship was hailed by the wind.

2. Hail the coming morn. (Change the voice)

Ans: Let the coming morn be hailed.

3. Proclaim the hour. (Change the voice)

Ans: Let the hour be proclaimed.

4. The mariners were urged to sail on by the wind. (Change the voice)

Ans: The wind urged the mariners to sail on.

5. It ___ to the field of corn. (Use the proper form of 'whisper')

Ans: whispered.

6. Ye mariners, the night is _____. (Use the proper form of 'go')

Ans: gone.

7. The wind that came up out of the sea, asked the mists to make room. (Remove Relative Clause)

Ans: Coming up out of the sea, the wind asked the mists to make room.

8. The wind hailed the ships. It urged the mariners to sail on. (Join by using Relative Clause)

Ans: The wind that hailed the ships, urged the mariners to sail on.

9. It touched the wood-birds folded wing. (Rewrite by using Relative Clause)

Ans: It touched the wood-bird's wing which was folded.

10. The wind came up out of the sea. It asked the mists to make room. (Join by using Participle)

Ans: Coming up out of the sea, the wind asked the mists to make room.

11. It touched the wood-bird's folded wing and asked it to sing. (Rewrite by using Participle)

Ans: Touching the wood-bird's folded wing, it asked the bird to sing.

12. The crowing of the cock signals the approach of the dawn. (Underline the Gerunds)

Ans: The crowing of the cock signals the approach of the dawn.

13. 'O mist, make room ___ me'. (Fill in the blank with appropriate Preposition)

Ans: 'O mist, make room for me'.

14. 'It crossed ___ churchyard with ___ sigh'. (Fill in the blanks with appropriate Articles)

Ans: 'It crossed the churchyard with a sigh'.

15. Your clarion blow; the day is nearby. (Correct the error)

Ans: Your clarion blow; the day is near.

Kalyani Banerjee