

Tick the correct answer for the following Questions:

1. The story "Father's Help" is an edited excerpt from:
i. The Guide ii. Malgudi Days iii. Swami and Friends
2. Swami realized it was Monday morning with a
i. Shudder iii. Shiver iii. Shock
3. At 9.30, Swami was
i. Lying in mother's room iii. In the school prayer hall iii. Complained of a headache
4. Swami changed his tactics because he knew that i. Mother would help him ii. He had better ideas iii. His father was strict 5. Swami thought that if he told his teacher about a headache, he would
i. Punish him ii. Send him home iii. Scold him 6. Father suggested that Swami should
i. Complain to his school headmaster ii. Make his teacher understand iii. Ignore him 7. The students in his school believed that
i. Samuel was stubborn ii. The headmaster was afraid of Samuel iii. The headmaster was useless 8. Swami told his father that Samuel was
i. An easy going person ii. An angry man iii. Very strict with discipline 9. Samuel was especially angry with boys who were
i. Ill mannered ii. Not punctual iii. Not doing their homework 10. Father asked if Swami always..... i.scolded the students ii.punished the students iii.was angry with them
11. Fill in the blank with the correct prasal verb: Mother suggested that Swami might _____ and rest.
i. Stay up ii. Stay over iii. Stay in 12. Identify the type of sentence: Swami realized with a shudder that it was Monday Morning.
i. Simple ii. Complex iii. Compound
13. Identify the clause: Swami was lying on the bench when he ought to have been at the school prayer hall.
i. Noun ii. Adverb iii. Adjective 14. Identify the kind of Conjunction used in the sentence: Dress up and go to school.
i. Adversative ii. Alternative iii. Cumulative 15. Choose the correct way for changing the sentence into indirect speech: Swami said, "I can't go so late to the class."
i. Swami said that I could not go so late to the class.
ii. Swami said that he couldn't go so late to the class.
iii. Swami said he cannot go so late to the class.