COMPREHENSION

Read the comprehension passage given below and answer the following questions.

HARU'S HOUSE

Haru's house is near a lake. Living near a lake is exciting. Haru gets to walk to the beautiful lake every day with her parents. She likes to watch fish swimming in the lake. At night, the frogs croak and the cricket chirp. Haru can hear the frogs and crickets from her house. The view is pretty from her window every night as fireflies fly in the darkness. From her window, the fireflies look like stars moving in the sky. Haru once thought of catching the fireflies in a jar to keep them like a lamp in her room. But then she thought that the fireflies were better flying around in the open.
