

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

TOPIC- INTERPRETING MAP SIGNS AND SYMBOLS

Sub: Geography

Class: 7

F. M. 15

WORKSHEET NO: 01

Date: 16.01.2021

OBJECTIVE QUESTIONS

Choose the correct option: 1x15=15

- 1) A darker shade of blue is used on maps to indicate
a) a bunch of blueberries b) deep seas & oceans c) a shoal of fishes d) clear sky

- 2) Black colour is not used to show lines of
a) contour b) railway c) telephone d) latitude

- 3) Sand hills and sand dunes are marked with
a) black b) fawn c) yellow d) brown

- 4) The yellow colour is used to show
a) forested area b) sandy plain c) cultivated land d) daffodil gardens

- 5) Orchards, scattered trees and scrubs are depicted by
a) green b) orange c) yellow d) pink

- 6) The symbols and letters of the Characteristic Sheet is used by the Survey of
a) Indonesia b) Ireland c) Iceland d) India

- 7) In the maps we show straight, curved, dotted, solid and dashed
a) colours b) symbols c) lines d) signs

- 8) In the maps conventional signs & symbols are used to represent features which are
a) natural b) natural & man-made c) neither natural nor man-made d) man-made

- 9) Toposheets are very useful in the study of
a) Physical Geography b) Economic Geography c) Regional Geography
d) Human Geography
- 10) The cartographers mark the railway and telephone lines on the map by the colour
a) grey b) brown c) purple d) black
- 11) The Characteristic Sheet shows the symbols and
a) letters b) captions c) colours d) scales
- 12) Reservoirs and tanks are also known as a) naala b) dariya c) talao d) prapat
- 13) The point of intersection where a main river joins its tributary is called the
a) confluence b) waterfall c) levee d) delta
- 14) Waterfalls are formed in the
a) hot deserts b) plain areas c) cold arid land d) hilly regions
- 15) Which of the following has water throughout the year?
a) Dry riverbed
b) Perennial tanks
c) Inundation canals
d) Seasonal tanks

Sanjukta Chakraborty