

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

27, BALLYGUNGE CIRCULAR ROAD, KOLKATA: 700019

Second Term

Answer Worksheet Number-9

My Failed Omelettes- and Other Disasters

Sub: English Text

Class: 3

Date: 13.05.20

---

1. Write the opposites of the given words:-

- Found- Lost
- Simple- Difficult
- Old- Young
- Forgot- Remembered
- Small- Big

2. Complete the following sentences:-

- As a result my eggs are only half-boiled.
- I used to think that boiling an egg would be a simple task.
- You must get your bread ready sliced.
- I'll make you a cheese omelette you'll never forget.
- I found that just getting the water to boil was something of an achievement.

3. Say whether the statements are True or False:-

- Gautam's grandfather lived at 6,000 feet in the Himalayan foothills. False
- Half boiled eggs are not nutritious. False
- Granny cooked delicious curries, koftas and custards. True
- To be perfect we need to practice. True
- The Scottish and English soldiers were good friends. False

4. Answer the following in brief:-

- What were the two reasons that the egg could not boil?

Ans. The two reasons because of which the egg could not boil were the height of the place and the type of water.

- Who always offered good advice?

Ans. Gautam always offered good advice.

- Why did Granny's curry become sweet?

Ans. Granny's curry became sweet because Gautam added a cup of sugar instead of adding a cup of spices.

- Did Gautam like the porridge? Why/Why not?

Ans. No, Gautam did not like the porridge because it was lumpy.

- What lesson did we learn at the end of the lesson?

Ans. At the end of the lesson we learnt that 'Practice makes perfect.'

Mervyn Nathaniel