

St. Lawrence High School
A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION
27, BALLYGUNGE CIRCULAR ROAD, KOLKATA 700019

1st Term

CLASS – IV

ANSWER: WORKSHEET – 4

DATE: 02.02.2021

SUBJECT – ENGLISH TEXT

LESSON – THE BOY WHO DREW CATS

Answer the following questions:-

1 .Give the opposites of the following words:

- a) Loved x Hated
- b) Forgot x Remembered
- c) Inside x Outside
- d) Gigantic x Tiny
- e) Heavy x Light

2 .Give one word for the following:

- a) Traditional stories that are very old - Legends
- b) Daily tasks - Chores
- c) A loud cry - Yowl
- d) A loud sound made by something falling on the ground - Thud
- e) Very large or huge - Gigantic

4. Answer the following questions in brief:

- a) What did Joji love to do?
Ans: Joji loved to draw cats.
- b) Why was Joji's father upset with him?
Ans: Joji's father was upset with him as he would show no interest in working on the farm with his siblings. He would forget about his chores and draw only cats.
- c) Where did Joji's father take him?
Ans: Joji's father took him to the priest at the village temple.
- d) What did the priest teach Joji?
Ans: The priest taught Joji lessons in reading and writing.

e) Why did the priest send Joji back home?

Ans: The priest send Joji back home because he felt that Joji would never make a priest as he did just one thing- he drew cats.

f) Why didn't Joji go back home?

Ans: Joji didn't go back home because he was afraid and he knew that his father would be angry with him.

g) Why did Joji feel strange when he opened the heavy door of the temple?

Ans: When Joji opened the heavy door of the temple, he found it strange as it was all dark inside and no one was there.

h) What made Joji clap his hands after he lit a lamp by the door?

Ans: When Joji lit a lamp by the door, he clapped his hands with joy as he could draw on the folding screens that were all around the big room.

4. Make sentences: (Model Sentences)

a) Angry- I was angry at my little brother for scribbling in my copy.

b) Heavy- My bag is too heavy to be lifted up.

(Children will write sentences of their own.)