

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

27, Ballygunge Circular Rd, Kolkata- 700019

Term: Second

Sub: Science

Class: 4

Date: 04.05.20

Lesson: Plants- Living and Surviving

Topic: Terrestrial Plants -•Plants that grow in the plains

•Plants that grow on the mountains

WORKSHEET - I

---

1. Fill in the blanks:-

- a) The trees in the plains have a large number of ..... , ..... leaves.
- b) The average height of trees in rainforests is .....meters, but the tallest tree can go up to .....meters.
- c) Plants that grow in the plains have many branches and lush green.....
- d) Trees in the .....grow very tall to grab maximum sunlight.
- e) High mountains become very cold during.....

2. Write true or false:-

- a) Trees growing in the snowy mountains shed their leaves in winter.
- b) Deciduous trees grow new leaves in winter.
- c) Evergreen trees keep shedding their leaves and growing new ones throughout the year.
- d) Rainforests are found in cold and wet places, where it rains heavily.

3. Give two examples for each of the following:-

- a) Trees growing in the plains-
- b) Trees growing on the mountains-
- c) Trees that grow cones-

4. Name the following:-

- a) The habitats found on land are called-.....
- b) The natural environment in which a plant or an animal is found-.....
- c) Special features that allow plants to live and grow in their natural environment-.....
- d) The trees that stays green throughout the year-.....
- e) The trees that shed all their leaves once a year, usually during the winter-.....
- f) Name a tree which has tough needle-shaped leaves-.....
- g) The shape of most trees in the high mountains-.....

5. Draw and colour a 'Terrestrial Plant'