

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

WORKSHEET – 56

Class: XII

Sub: Biological Science

Date: 23.11.2020

Topic: Ch (8) Part 5 – Alcohol and Drug abuse and Cancer

F.M. : 15

Choose the correct option:

(1x15=15)

- The characteristics of cancer is :
a) Abnormal and uncontrolled cell division b) Invasion by cancer cells c) Destruction of surrounding tissues d) All of these
- The phenomenon of cancer cells which means uncontrolled growth is termed as:
a) Contact inhibition b) Neoplasia c) Metastasis d) All of these
- A malignant tumour does not show the following property :
a) Metastasis b) Invasion c) Neoplasia d) contact inhibition:
- Abnormal increase in the number of white blood cells is called
a) lymphoma b) leukemia c) carcinoma d) osteoma
- The following is an example of physical irritant carcinogen:
a) Use of kangri b) Nicotine c) X - rays d) UV - rays
- The following is an example of withdrawal symptom:
a) Anxiety b) nervousness c) dryness in throat d) all of these
- Continued use of alcohol leads to destruction of hepatocytes and fibroblasts leading to forming of hard nodules, this is called:
a) Liver cancer b) liver cirrhosis c) fatty liver d) all of these
- Barbiturates are an example of :
a) tranquilizers b) sedatives c) stimulants d) none of these
- Opium has special receptors in CNS to which they bind, they are called
a) Opioid receptors b) Cannabinoid receptor c) psychedelic receptor d) none of these
- Cocaine is obtained from the following plant:
a) Psilocybe b) Erythroxylon c) Cannabis d) Lophophora
- The following decreases anxiety and tension and producing a feeling of calmness with or without inducing sleep:
a) Tranquilizers b) Opiates c) Cannabinoids d) all of these
- The seeds of the following plants produce hallucinogenic properties:
a) Erythroxylon b) Datura c) Thea d) Theobroma
- Excessive drinking of alcohol causes :
a) Pancreatitis b) cirrhosis c) increase cancer risk d) all of these

14. Anti tobacco day is celebrated on;
a) May 31st b) October 31st c) December 31st d) March 31st
15. are also used as analgesic
a) Opium b) hypnotics c) Diazepam d) all of these

Shaista Ahmed