

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

SECOND TERM WORKSHEET NO. - 03

Class: 5 A, B, C

Sub: HISTORY

Date- 14/11/2020

TOPIC: THE ADVENT OF THE BRITISH

CHAPTER: 7

I. CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION

(1x15=15)

- Why did the postal and telegraph services were established in India?
 - Better communication system needed to be developed
 - To keep record of what was happening in the different parts of India
 - Both
 - None
- Before Industrialization Revolution, England had bought all the cotton fabrics from
 - Pakistan
 - China
 - Nepal
 - India
- Why the Indian handloom industries were badly affected during British rule?
 - English people banned the sale of Indian cotton fabric in England
 - Raw cotton from India was sent to England
 - Raw cotton bought from India was woven into textiles and sent to India again as finished goods.
 - All of the above
- During _____ Revolution, the power of steam was discovered and this gave England the railway system.
 - French
 - American
 - European
 - Industrial
- How were the English benefitted by the railway system?
 - Move goods from different parts of India to port cities
 - The English could enter other parts of India easily
 - The railways provided excellent means to move all over the country to defend the British territories
 - All are correct
- When did the first train run in India?
 - 1876
 - 1835
 - 1853
 - 1875
- The first train in India ran between _____ and Thane.
 - Bombay
 - Pune
 - Delhi
 - Bihar
- What was the official language of the Mughal Empire?
 - Hindi
 - Urdu
 - Persian
 - Sanskrit
- English was made the official language in India in
 - 18th century
 - 21st century
 - 19th century
 - 20th century
- Apart from Bengali, Raja Ram Mohan Roy was well versed in
 - Arabic
 - Persian
 - English
 - All
- What items did the East India Company trade in Asia and India?
 - Spices
 - Cotton
 - Sugar
 - All
- French and the English remained the only trading nations in India during the
 - 18th century
 - 17th century
 - 16th century
 - 20th century
- When did the English defeat French and become the major trading superpower in India?
 - 18th century
 - 17th century
 - 16th century
 - 20th century
- The East India Company set up their first trading centre at _____.
 - Meerut
 - Pune
 - Surat
 - Delhi
- More trading centres were gradually set up by the East India Company at
 - Mumbai
 - Calcutta
 - Madras
 - All

