b. Write the second stanza of the poem 'My Dog'. Name the poet.

Ans. IF you that little dog, his tail up in the air,
A whirly tail, a curly tail, a dog who does not care.
For any other dog he meets, not even for himself,
Then hide your mats and put your meat upon the shelf.

The name of the poet is Emily Lewis

c. Write the summary of the poem 'My Dog'.

Ans. The poet is in search of his raggy, shaggy dog with a whirly, curly tail and eyes like twinkling stars. He always looked out for some fresh mischief which he thinks he should do. He is not ready to change the dog for anything in the world, even though he is bad and mischievous. The poet loves his dog as he is. Likewise, we should love and accept everyone the way they are.

d. Write five sentences of your own about a dog.

Ans. A dog is a useful animal. It guards our house.
It protects us from burglars. It plays with us and entertains us. It keeps us safe and makes our life easy.
