

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

TOPIC- EUROPE

Sub: Geography

Class: 7

F. M. 15

WORKSHEET NO. 11

Date: 25.4.2020

Model Answer

OBJECTIVE QUESTIONS

Choose the correct option: 1x15=15

- 1) The Central Uplands of Europe lies between the North European plains and the -
a) Alps b) Scandes c) Urals

- 2) The height of the Central Uplands does not exceed -
a) 1400m b) 1500m c) 1600m

- 3) The Central Uplands extend from east to west across -
a) Western Europe b) Central Europe c) Eastern Europe

- 4) Geologists believe that the Central Uplands are the broken remains of an ancient mountain system called the -
a) Caledonian System b) Hercynian System c) Gothian System

- 5) The Central Uplands consist of the Ardennes in –
a) France b) Germany c) Belgium

- 6) As a part of the Central Uplands lie in Germany the Black Forest and the -
a) Sudetes b) Taunus c) Vosges

- 7) In Spain lies the -
a) Meseta Central b) Bohemian Massif c) Massif Central

- 8) The Alpine Mountain System is also known as the -
a) 'Rooftop of Eurasia' b) 'Rooftop of Europe' c) 'Rooftop of the World'
- 9) The Apennines a part of the Alpine Mountain System extends in -
a) Italy b) Hungary c) Austria
- 10) As a part of the Alpine Mountain system in Spain and France lies the -
a) Rhodopes b) Scandes c) Pyrenees
- 11) The Carpathian a part of the Alpine Mountain System extends from Slovakia to -
a) Bulgaria b) Romania c) Serbia
- 12) The Alps form a crescent extending in length and width respectively of-
a) 1000 km & 100 km b) 1500 km & 500 km c) 1200 km & 200 km
- 13) The rivers originating from the Alps are Rhine, Rhone and -
a) Thames b) Po c) Volga
- 14) The highest summit of the Alps is -
a) Mont Blanc b) Mount Elbrus c) Monte Rosa
- 15) The Alps were formed by the collision between the continental plates of Eurasia &
a) North America b) Africa c) South America

Sanjukta Chakraborty.