

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

CLASS - XII

POLITICAL SCIENCE ANSWER KEY - 22

TOPICS: ORGANS OF GOVT-DISTINCTION, EXECUTIVE FUNCTIONS

DATE: 20.06.2020

A. Answer the following questions by choosing the correct option:

1x15=15

1. Separation of Power advocates that three organs of government should be separate.
2. Division of Powers related to federal form of government.
3. In Unitary form of government there should be division of power between Unitary government and local self governing bodies.
4. The principle of Separation of Power has been adopted in USA.
5. The organ that executes the laws is called executive.
6. President is known as the Chief Executive.
7. President in USA is an example of single executive.
8. Plural Executive in Switzerland is in the form of Presidium.
9. The British Queen is an example of Titular executive.
10. The Prime Minister of U.K. is the example of real executive.
11. The Prime Minister of U.K. is the example of Political executive.
12. Diplomatic functions of executive make a country adequately represented.
13. The military has three wings – army, navy, airforce.
14. Pardon to convicts falls under judicial review of executive.
15. Executive takes part in legislation in Presidential form of government indirectly.

Teacher's Name: Rituparna Banerjee