Teacher's Day

Teacher's Day is celebrated on the 5th of September every year. On this day we honour our teachers for their contributions in shaping the life of students. We celebrate it on the 5th of September because it is the birth anniversary of a great teacher, Dr Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan. He was a believer in education and was also the president of India. We celebrate this day by giving flowers and cards to our teachers to show our love, affection and respect for them. We particularly look forward to this day because we organize a cultural programme with short dramas, dance and singing performances. We also prepare little speeches to express our gratitude and love for our teachers. Some of us even write and recite poems for our teachers. We celebrate this day with great enthusiasm.
