

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

2020

Chapter: Plateaus and Plains

Worksheet number: 5

Date: 15/05/2020

Class: 6

Term: II

Sub: Geography

Choose the correct answer:

1x15=15

1. The lava plains are mainly formed by (basalt/ granite/ quartz) lava.
2. The fine sand deposited by wind to form extensive plain is known as (silt/ loess/ alluvial) plain.
3. Lava generally oozes out of (volcanoes/ plateaus/ fissures).
4. The plains of Kazakhstan are an example of (lava/ loess/ lake) plains.
5. Hell's Half Acre Lava Field is located in (Indiana/ Illinois/ Idaho).
6. Violent eruption of lava is associated with (fissures/ volcanoes/ faulting).
7. Lacustrine plains are formed by (evaporation/ erosion/ denudation) of lakes.
8. Many parts of the prairies are (lake/ loess/ delta) plains.
9. The (upliftment/ subsidence/ tilting) of the continental shelf leads to the formation of continental shelcoastal plainf.
10. Imphal is located in (Kashmir/ Manipur/ Assam).
11. The Andes Mountain lies in (South America/ South Africa/ North America).
12. Outwash plain has (alluvial/ clayey/ sandy) soil.
13. The Kankakee Outwash plain is located in (north-west/ north-east/ central) Indiana.
14. Deposition action of glaciers form (drift/ loess/ coastal) plains.
15. Industries should not be built on (hills/ plateaus/ agricultural lands).