Second Term Worksheet Number-11 Conjunctions

Sub: English Grammar

Class: 3

Date: 15.05.20

Conjunctions are joining words. They join words, phrases or sentences. Some common conjunctions are and, or, but, so, though, since, or and because.

We use and to join two words, phrases or sentence or sentences.

We use but to link words or sentences that are opposite to each other.

We use or to suggest and option between two choices.

We use because to give a reason for saying or doing something.

1. Complete the sentence using and or but :-

- I love Italian food ___ I eat pasta every day.
- Helen bought a new dress ___ she did not use it.
- I love to play indoor _____ outdoor games.
- Lisa can cook ___ her brother can't.
- Rina ate an apple ___ a mango.

2. Fill in the blanks with the correct conjunctions:-

and	or	so	but	because
