

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

CLASS - XII

POLITICAL SCIENCE ANSWER KEY - 21

TOPICS: ORGANS OF GOVT-SEPERATION OF POWER

DATE: 19.06.2020

A. Answer the following questions by choosing the correct option:

1x15=15

1. The task of law making is under legislature.
2. The judiciary punishes the law-breakers.
3. Montesquieu was the chief exponent of the Theory of Separation of Powers.
4. Spirit of Laws was published in 1748.
5. No branch of government should encroach upon the powers of each other.
6. Montesquieu was mistaken in saying separation of power existed in Britain.
7. From the very nature of things there should be a check to power.
8. Complete separation of power is not feasible.
9. Government is like an organic body.
10. The three departments of government are not water tight Compartments.
11. The three organs are insulated not isolated.
12. Separation of power creates a deadlock.
13. The theory of Separation of Power is not applicable in welfare state.
14. The organs of government are not of equal power.
15. One organ has to perform other's function under compulsion.

*****

Teacher's Name: Rituparna Banerjee