

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION
27, BALLYGUNGE CIRCULAR ROAD,
KOLKATA – 700 019

Class: IV
2nd Term

Social Study

Worksheet – 3

Date: 06.05.2020

Topic: The Himalayas

A. Fill in the blanks

1. India can be divided into _____ natural regions
2. The _____ are the highest mountain ranges in the world
3. The Himalayas form a natural boundary between India and the countries of _____, _____ and _____
4. The _____ is the highest range in the Himalayas with snow-covered peaks and _____
5. The highest peaks of the Himalayas are _____, _____ and Lhotse
6. The average height of the Greater Himalayas is over _____ metres
7. The _____ range lies to the _____ of the Greater Himalayas
8. There are valleys called _____ or Duns between the Lower and Middle Himalayas
9. The Himalayas act as a natural line of defence for _____
10. During winter, the Himalayas stop the cold freezing winds from _____ _____ from blowing into India

B. Match the Column

- | | |
|-----------------------|---|
| 1. Mount Everest | Nepal - China |
| 2. Lhotse | Nepal |
| 3. Kashmir | rise from the glaciers in the Himalayas |
| 4. Darjeeling | the beautiful valley |
| 5. Ganga, Brahmaputra | the hill station |

C. Answer in one or two words:

1. What is the Greater Himalayas also known as?
2. What is the Middle Himalayas also known as?
3. What is the Lower Himalayas also known as?
4. What is the average height of the Lower Himalayas?
5. What is a huge mass of ice and rock called which moves slowly over land?

Sharmistha Sen
