Second Term Worksheet Number-12 Conjunctions

Sub: English Grammar

Class: 3

Date: 16.05.20

Conjunctions are joining words. They join words, phrases or sentences. Some common conjunctions are and, or, but, so, though, since, or and because.

We use and to join two words, phrases or sentence or sentences.

We use but to link words or sentences that are opposite to each other.

We use or to suggest and option between two choices.

We use because to give a reason for saying or doing something.

1. Combine the two sentences using 'and':-

- You have a grey sweater. You have blue jeans.
- Mary likes pasta. Mary likes chocolate cake.
- The children play hockey. The children play basketball.
- My dad has a red car. My dad has a green bicycle.
- Tim likes cats. Tim likes dogs.

2. Complete the sentences below. Use your imagination:-

- It's five o'clock, but _____
- Michael has a new car, but _____
- I'm tired, but _____
- My cat is friendly, but _____
- There is a movie on TV, but _____

3. Rewrite the sentences using 'because':-

- Her hair is wet. She just washed it.
- I eat carrot and cabbage. They are healthy.
- You should use the crossing. The road is very busy.
- The girl was scared. She watched a horror movie.
- I go to the beach. I can go surfing there.

4. Underline the conjunctions in the following sentences':-

- She didn't speak to anyone, but everyone spoke to her.
- I will go shopping, or I will go camping.
- They rushed to the railway station, but they were to late.
- Mr. Das has been living here since the year 2000.
- I was feeling hungry, so I made myself a sandwich.
