

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

27, Ballygunge Circular Rd, Kolkata- 700019

Term: Second

Sub: Science

Class: 4

Date: 12.05.20

Lesson: Animal Reproduction

Topic: Animals that give birth to babies

WORKSHEET - 8

1. Fill in the blanks:-

- Most mammals have hair on their.....
- ..... and ..... look like fish but they are mammals.
- Babies grow big..... and .....with their mother's milk.
- A kangaroo gives birth to a.....
- The ..... and the ..... are the only mammals that lay eggs.

2. Match the columns:-

- |   |                          |                             |
|---|--------------------------|-----------------------------|
| a. Most mammals give birth              | <input type="checkbox"/> | inside the mother's body.   |
| b. A baby develops                      | <input type="checkbox"/> | with her own milk.          |
| c. Bats are also                        | <input type="checkbox"/> | that lay eggs.              |
| d. The mother feeds the baby            | <input type="checkbox"/> | to fully formed young ones. |
| e. The duck-billed platypus is a mammal | <input type="checkbox"/> | mammals.                    |

3. Underline the correct answer:-

- A kangaroo gives birth to a :- (foal/Joey)
- The spiny anteater is a mammal that:- (gives birth to its young ones/ lay eggs)
- Bats are :- (mammals/birds)
- The baby stays inside the mother's body for :- (few weeks/ several weeks)
- A dolphin is a :- (fish/mammal)

4. Answer in one or two words:-

- Animals that give birth to their young ones are called?
- Name a mammal that has hair on its body.
- Name a mammal that lay eggs.
- What does a mother feed her baby when it is born?

5. Draw (any one) of the following given in bracket – (a mammal that lay eggs or a mammal that gives birth to her own kind)