Model Paragraph

My hobby is reading books. I have been reading books from the time I joined school. My mother loves to read books and from her I have learnt reading books. My father encourages me to read and buys new books for me. Whenever I get free time, after completing my school homework, I read. There is a book shelf in my home. There are lots of books about freedom fighters, kings, fairy tales, etc. My favourite book is 1001 fantastic facts. Reading books gives us a lot of knowledge. Reading has always helped me to prepare for quiz competition and has improved my speaking skills.
