Second Term Worksheet Number-13 Conjunctions

Sub: English Grammar

Class: 3

Date: 18.05.20

Conjunctions are joining words. They join words, phrases or sentences. Some common conjunctions are and, or, but, so, though, since, or and because.

We use and to join two words, phrases or sentence or sentences.

We use but to link words or sentences that are opposite to each other.

We use or to suggest and option between two choices.

We use because to give a reason for saying or doing something.

1. Choose suitable conjunctions from the brackets to complete the sentences:-

- We went on a picnic _____ the weather was fine. (because / or)
- Seema is a fine player _____ she practices a lot. (although / because)
- Do you want to see the movie at 4o'clock _____ 6 o'clock? (or / therefore)
- I bought apple, oranges _____ pears for my grandmother. (or/ and)
- He has plenty of money, _____ he is unhappy. (so / but)

2. Rewrite the following sentences by replacing the incorrect conjunctions with the correct ones:-

- I have a headache but I watched a lot of television.
- Does Surmai live in Cuttack because Surat?
- I have a pet cat but a pet dog.
- Kevin knows how to row, because he does not know how to swim.
- Is it 6.00pm or 7.00pm now?

3. Make sentences with the following conjunctions:-

- After-
- Because-
- Though-
- But-
- Therefore-

4. Use and/or/but because to fill in the blanks:-

- I need to buy bread _____ cheese.
- I am happy _____ I got good grades in Science.
- Does this coat belong to you _____ Ram?
- I like going to the park, _____ I don't like going to the museum.
- My friend knitted a brown _____ grey sweater.
