

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

TOPIC- INDUSTRIES

Sub: Geography

Class: 7

F. M. 15

WORKSHEET NO. 24

Date: 18.05.2020

OBJECTIVE QUESTIONS

Choose the correct option: 1x15=15

- 1) The manufacturing sector is considered to be the backbone of a country's -
a) cultural development b) economic development c) academic development

- 2) In India a considerable population is occupied in the field of -
a) pisciculture b) sericulture c) agriculture

- 3) The following is a basis of classifying industries -
a) size b) service c) shape

- 4) The basic material from which a product is made is called a -
a) waste material b) used material c) raw material

- 5) Industries which procure raw materials from plants are -
a) marine based b) agro based c) mineral based

- 6) The following is not an agro based industry –
a) cement b) sugar c) silk

- 7) Cotton textile and food processing industries are -
a) forest based b) marine based c) agro based

- 8) The marine based industries derive raw materials from the -
a) rivers and lakes b) ponds and canals c) seas and oceans

- 9) Muga silk is produced in –
a) Gujarat b) Assam c) Kerala
- 10) The following is not a silk –
a) Tussar b) Mulberry c) Linen
- 11) Furniture industry obtains its raw materials from -
a) forests b) oceans c) mines
- 12) The following is a forest based industry –
a) dairy b) leather c) paper
- 13) Essential oils are extracted from the -
a) cinchona tree b) eucalyptus tree c) rubber tree
- 14) Namrup and Bongaigaon are noted for -
a) petrochemical industries b) iron & steel industries c) pulp & paper industries
- 15) The major oil refineries of Assam are located at -
a) Guwahati, Digboi, Nawalgarh and Bongaigaon
b) Guwahati, Digboi, Numaligarh and Bhikangaon
c) Guwahati, Digboi, Numaligarh and Bongaigaon

Sanjukta Chakraborty.