Conjunctions

Sub: English Grammar

Class: 3

Date: 16.05.20

Conjunctions are joining words. They join words, phrases or sentences. Some common conjunctions are and, or, but, so, though, since, or and because.

We use and to join two words, phrases or sentence or sentences.

We use but to link words or sentences that are opposite to each other.

We use or to suggest and option between two choices.

We use because to give a reason for saying or doing something.

1. Combine the two sentences using 'and':-

a. You have a grey sweater. You have blue jeans.
