

2020

Chapter: Agriculture

Worksheet number: 2

Date: 18/04/2020

Class: 6

Term: I

Sub: Geography

Choose the correct answer:

1x15=15

1. Edaphic factor relates to the (physical/ chemical/ both) properties of soil.
2. Soil moisture means (water-holding capacity/ humus/ nutrients) of the soil.
3. Shifting cultivation leads to degradation of the (forest/ soil/ both).
4. Cotton grows well in the (black/ red/ sandy) soil of Maharashtra.
5. (Groundnut/ Brazilnut/ Bettlenut) grows well in light sandy soil.
6. (Furniture/ biscuits/ flowers) are called perishable products.
7. Many raw materials needed for (agriculture/ animal rearing/ industries) are sent through good transport system.
8. Mechanised farming require (money/ seed/ fertilizer) for growing more crops.
9. Methods of agricultural farming is classified into (2/ 3/ 4) types.
10. Subsistence and (shifting/ nomadic/ intensive) cultivation are two types of sedentary cultivation.
11. In the beginning people were (hunters/ food gatherers/ both).
12. The oldest type of agriculture is (sedentary/ shifting/ intensive) agriculture.
13. Shifting agriculture grows fruits like (bananas/ yams/ mangoes).
14. Shifting cultivation is known as (Jhum/ Chena/ Milpa) in India.
15. Shifting cultivation is practised in forested areas of (North-Eastern states/ Bengal plains/ Coastal Gujarat).