

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION

SECOND TERM ANSWER SHEET NO. - 18

Class: 9

Sub: GEOGRAPHY

Date- 27/04/2020

TOPIC: THE WESTERN PLATEAU

CHAPTER: 8

I. CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION.

(1X15=15)

1. The _____ region comprises of entire Purulia, West Mednipur, Bardhaman, Birbhum and western part of Bankura districts.
a. Western Plateau
2. _____ region is basically made of granite and gneiss.
c. western plateau
3. The Western Plateau region occupies about _____ percent of the total area of West Bengal.
b. 6
4. The _____ region lies between the Subarnarekha and Kangsabati rivers of Purulia district.
a. Ayodhya plateau
5. This region is a continuation of Chotanagpur plateau of Jharkhand.
b. Western plateau
6. Many hills with steep slopes are seen in the Ayodhya plateau region known as
c. Monad nocks
7. _____ is the highest peak of the Ayodhya plateau region.
c. Gorgaburu
8. The artesian well of _____ lies little away from Brahmani falls and emits water the year round.
b. Sita kund
9. _____ region spreads from Subarnarekha river in the west to Gori river.
d. Purulia highland 10. The region between the Kansai and Subarnarekha in Purulia district is the most elevated portion of Western plateau. It is known as
b. Barabhum
11. This region lies in the southern most part of Purulia district, spreading up to West Mednipur in the south-east.
b. Birbhum highland
12. The average altitude of this highland is around 300m.
a. Purulia
13. A rocky heap known as _____ has an altitude of 100 m.
d. Karasoli
14. This region lies near the western plateau and gradually reduces to a plain spreading over Birbhum, Bankura and Bardhaman districts.
c. Susunia highland
15. A number of hills like Bhandari, Bero hill, Garh Panchakot and Jaichandi are seen in _____ region.
a. Purulia highland