

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

A JESUIT CHRISTIAN MINORITY INSTITUTION
27, BALLYGUNGE CIRCULAR ROAD,
KOLKATA – 700 019

Class: IV
2nd Term

Social Study

Worksheet – 5

Date: 08.05.2020

Topic: The Southern Plateau

A. Fill in the blanks

1. The Southern Plateau is triangular in shape and covers a large part of the Indian peninsula
2. The Southern Plateau was formed millions of years ago by lava flowing out of volcanoes
3. A volcano is an opening in the ground through which rocks from deep inside the Earth come onto its surface
4. The Deccan Plateau lies to the South of the Satpura Range
5. Cotton and sugarcane grow well in black soil
6. Southern Plateau has popular hill stations like Ooty, Khandala and Mount Abu

B. Write True or False

1. The Southern Plateau lies to the North of the Southern plains – False
2. The Southern Plateau can be divided into four smaller regions – False
3. The hot molten rock that flows out through a volcano is called lava – True
4. The Malwa Plateau lies in the north-west of the Southern plateau – True
5. The Chota Nagpur Plateau lies in the south-west – False
6. The Southern Plateau is rich in minerals and fossil fuels – True
7. Black Soil is formed from lava – True
8. The hot rocks that flow out through a volcano are in a molten state – True
9. The Chota Nagpur Plateau includes most of Jharkhand, parts of Odisha, Bihar and Chattisgarh – True
10. The Deccan Plateau covers parts of Karnataka, Maharashtra, Kerala, Tamil Nadu and Telangana – True
11. The Malwa Plateau includes parts of Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh – True
12. Some examples of fossil fuels are iron ore, bauxite, manganese and coal – True

C. Draw the following:

1. Volcano

2. Plateau

Sharmistha Sen
