Answer Worksheet Number-11

Conjunctions

Sub: English Grammar

Class: 3

Date: 15.05.20

Conjunctions are joining words. They join words, phrases or sentences. Some common conjunctions are and, or, but, so, though, since, or and because.

We use and to join two words, phrases or sentence or sentences.

We use but to link words or sentences that are opposite to each other.

We use or to suggest and option between two choices.

We use because to give a reason for saying or doing something.

1. Complete the sentence using and or but :-

- I love Italian food and I eat pasta every day.
- Helen bought a new dress but she did not use it.
- I love to play indoor and outdoor games.
- Lisa can cook but her brother can't.
- Rina ate an apple and a mango.

2. Fill in the blanks with the correct conjunctions:-

and or so but because

- I will study every night so that I can pass the test.
- We can drive in to the city or we can take the bus.
- I wanted to call you last night but my mother was on the phone.
- He went to the hospital because he hurt his leg.
- She went to the store and bought a pair of shoes.

3. Use a suitable conjunction to join each of the following pair of sentences :-

- Sonali went to the zoo. Sonali went to the park.
Ans. Sonali went to the zoo and to the park.
- Maya is happy. May's father got a new job.
Ans. Maya is happy because her father got a new job.
- Is Mohan going to the dance class? Is Mohan going to the yoga class?
Ans. Is Mohan going to the dance or yoga class?
- Nikhil bought trousers. Nikhil bought shoes.
Ans. Nihkil bought trousers and shoes.
- Liza eats a lot. She is thin.
Ans. Liza eats a lot but she is thin.

4. Match the correct sentences:-
