

ST. LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

TOPIC- EUROPE

Sub: Geography

Class: 7

F. M. 15

WORKSHEET NO. 10

Date: 24.4.2020

OBJECTIVE QUESTIONS

Choose the correct option: 1x15=15

- 1) Europe is bordered in the south by the -
a) Barents Sea b) Mediterranean Sea c) North Sea

- 2) The Northern Highlands of Europe extends from the Ural Mountains to the -
a) Atlantic Ocean b) Pacific Ocean c) Arctic Ocean

- 3) The northern part of the Northern Highlands is called the -
a) Ardennes b) Sudetenland c) Fennoscandia

- 4) The Urals extend from the Pay-Khoy ridge in the north to the -
a) Aral Sea in the south b) Adriatic Sea in the south c) Aegean Sea in the south

- 5) The Scandinavian Mountains extend across the countries of Sweden, Norway and -
a) Iceland b) Poland c) Finland

- 6) The North European Plain extends from the shores of the Atlantic Ocean to the -
a) Voldai Mountains b) Ural Mountains c) Caucasus Mountains

- 7) The long narrow strips of sea between high cliffs are called the -
a) fjords b) gulfs c) straits

- 8) The Beinn Eighe is a group of -
a) mountains b) plateaus c) islands

- 9) The westward extension of the North European plains is the -
a) Swan Isles b) British Isles c) Falkland Isles
- 10) The North European Plains is broadest in the -
a) western part b) northern part c) eastern part
- 11) The East European Plain implies the -
a) Hungarian plain b) Russian plain c) Andalusian plain
- 12) The Scandinavian shield is made up of -
a) Igneous & Metamorphic rocks b) Igneous & Sedimentary rocks
c) Sedimentary & Metamorphic rocks
- 13) To the south of the North European Plains lies the -
a) Northwestern Highlands b) Alpine Highlands c) Eastern Highlands
- 14) The plains of Lombardy lies in -
a) Hungary b) Spain c) Italy
- 15) The Scandinavian Shield is also known as the -
a) Baltic Shield b) Adriatic Shield c) White Shield

Sanjukta Chakraborty.