Write ten sentences 'Being Honest'

Since we were small children, our parents told us that we should always speak the truth. We started learning also about it in our Value Education classes. When we grew up, we saw it happening in front of us. You need to have courage to speak the truth.

When we speak the truth, we speak about the actual things.

We should not get scared when we speak the truth as we have not done anything wrong. Nobody likes to be friends with liars.

We must also be honest in the way we behave with others.

Speaking the truth can be learned from our school and from our family.
