MEASUREMENT

I. Fill in the blanks.

1) Length, height and distance are measured in _____, _____ and _____ .

2) _____ is used to measure short length.

3) _____ and _____ is used to measure long length.

4) _____ is used to measure short distance.

5) _____ is used to measure long distance.

6) _____ and _____ is used to measure height.

II. Which unit will you choose (centimetres - cm, metres – m, kilometres – km, milligrams-m, grams –g, kilograms – kg, millilitres-mL, litre-L) to measure the following things?

1) A pencil: _____

2) The distance between your home and a park: _____

3) Length of the TV screen: _____

4) Height of a glass: _____

5) A small bottle of vanilla essence: _____

6) The length of a big table: _____

7) A bottle of water _____

8) Length of a carpet: _____

9) A packet of olive oil: _____

10) The distance between Kolkata and Mumbai:_____

11) A gold ring: _____

12) Length of a bus: _____

13) A big sack of potatoes: _____

14) The distance between Kolkata and Chennai:_____

_____

Monjita Biswas